Puyallup Public Library
Solicitation Policy

In order not to interfere with the community’s use of the Library and the work of the staff, no solicitation for sales or contributions to charity may be made in the Library without the permission of the Librarian. This includes donation boxes requesting contributions. However, the Friends of the Library and the Puyallup Library Foundation may request donations for the benefit of the Library.

Policy Revised: November 27, 1995