When preparing this application, please print or type the reply to each question. If you have any questions, please contact the Development Services Center at (253) 864-4165. The following plans, specifications and other documents pertaining to the application shall be submitted at the time of filing. Please note that incomplete application packets may cause a delay in reviewing your application.

Upon proper filing of an appeal of Environmentally Critical Area Determination made by the Director, the Hearing Examiner shall conduct a duly noticed public hearing pursuant to Chapter 20.12 of the Puyallup Municipal Code. Upon completion of said hearing the examiner shall render a written decision supported by findings and conclusions agreeing with, modifying, or disagreeing with the Director's Determination. The Hearing Examiner's Determination may be appealed to the Appellate Hearing Examiner.
